

I completely support comment submitted by the american radio relay league for docketET 03-104

Further research for broad band over power line is needed to be able to avoid the risk of interference to services licensed to operate in the 2MHz-80MHz frequencys..

Approval of ET03-104 would violate fcc.rules on non interference and would not be in the best interest of the public...